A RASCAL AND A FOOL.

Last fall a young man, a travelling agent for a city wholesale house, wandered away toward the north some thirty or forty miles, and ceased wandering at a village known as Iron Ridge in this State. Wether he was afraid of taking cold, or unusually attracted by the appearance of the young ladies of the viliage, is not definitely known, but that he refused to venture into the Arctic regions of a still more northern chimate is a fact; and not only that, but he abandoned his former pursuit and metamorphosed into an instructor of the youthful mind, a professor, a teach-the-young-nica-how-to-shoot man. He secured a situation, and began teaching; but he knew considerable more than is taught in books-that is, such books as arithmetics and geographics-and it was not long before he had initiated the blooming damsels who didn't attend school into the multifarious perplexities of the lesson of love. He "had things all his own way," and most assiduously did he apply himself to improve his opportunity. He succeeded so well that he selected one from his numerous loves, and absolutely marrad her about two months ago. But such a hole thing as being married didn't interfere with his still delighting in the warm personal triendship of the remaining young ladies of the place. And it apparently made but a trifling difference with the young ladios. They said as young ladies frequently do, 'Why, he's meer than ever, now he's married !" (young man, there s a hint for you!) and so matters

It seems that these ardent souls could not say a sufficient amount of nonsense at any one meeting, and consequently carried on what is termed a furious correspondence, each young lady, of course, imagining herself the favored one and sole correspondent. He, to save time, wrote his letters in triple sheet, sending each a the simile of the other's letter, the address bemg the only change. This "answered just as will, you know, and saved bother." So Lucy and Susie, and the numerous others, each received tender epistolary effusious, vowing "unending love, but-my wife, you know!" for some time. At length the gay deceiver became restive and proposed an elopement to his loves, through the mail. If they had all accepted, he would have been in a fix, but as lack would have it, only one agreed to the proposal. This was a young, beautiful girl, about eighteen years of age, daughter of one of the leading men of the place, and named Eveline Sherwood. Eveline consented, and last Manday the pair left Iron Ridge and came to Milwaukee, and stopped at the Eagle Hotel, registering, of course, as man and wife. Tuesday the gent said he must go back to Iron Radge to transact some business, but promised more return immediately. He was either of an unsuspecting nature, or imagined his absence and that of the young lady would not be placed together, leaving the supposition that he enticed her way, or surely he would not have walked into the close embrace of an irate father. But so he did, and was immediately hand ed over to the sheriff and confined in the jail at Horicon. As the days passed by and the young man did not make his appearance, Eveline changed her headquarters, going to the Kirby, Fox, and Clifton House. Friday a young man from Iron Ridge came to this city in quest of her, although he bad no knowledge of her whereabouts, simply supposing it natural that she would be found here. It seems her "feller" hadn't divulged their secret, and no one knew where she was.

The affair was placed in the hands of the police, and Costancy Egan was detailed to work the case up. We might as well say, immediately, that the girl was found yesterday at the Cilion House, on Chestnut street; for of course, as long as Egan was after her, she couldn't long remain out of sight. She was taken to the jail for safe keeping, and will remain there until her father comes after her. It is a hard experience for this young girl, who has been accustomed to refinement and comfort if not luxury, to be confined in the bare cell of a county jail. She is a very pretty, fresh, intelligent girl, and possessed of a great amount of caurage. From a few remarks made by her it would seem that matters at home are not in a very agreeable state, and she intimates that it was not entirely for the sake of the "divine tassion," that she consented to this elopement. One amusing circumstance in this connection happened. This lady has a sister, who has also been the recipient of letters from this would rful schoolmaster, and when she heard of the elepement she immediately drew from her pecket, with expressions of disgust at her sister's loon-liness, a large number of tender effusions from the teacher, urging her to run away with him. This was putting it on presty thick for one family.

Thus the matter rests. The teacher is in jul in Hericon; the young lady is in jail in Milwinkle and all for loving "not wisely, but too well," - Exchange.

IT WASN'T HER HUSBAND, AFTER ALL. A story has gone the rounds of literary gossip about an attached pair of names not unknown to fame, who went to board where people also went who were literary and of good taste. The haly, thinking that as she and her husband were all in all to each other, it was as well they should remain so, desired of the hostess that there might be no introductions to the other boarders, which was observed. Various tender passages between the amiable pair on their way to and from the dining room edified the family during the season. In time a Boston man came to loard, and on his way to the basement at dinber, going down late he heard a light laugh behind him, and a figure not so light as the laugh sprang on his shoulders and claimed a ride down CIGARS, TORSCCO, SNUFF, PIPES, stairs. The Boston man took things coolly, carried his burden down into the dining room, and shot her into a vacant seat at the table. The lady looked up to find her husband already there before her, and every eye was turned to watch these extraordinary proceedings. There was nothing to be done but to burst into tears, which she did. -N. Y. Tribune.

MEDICAL. BALTO. LOCK HOSPITAL

DR. JOHNSTON,

Physician of this celebrated institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the world for ail DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembting, Dinness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, &c.

YOUNG MEN.

Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, and dreadful and destructive habits which annually sweep to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to extact the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE. Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency,) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a contract.

may religiously confide in his honor as a gentle-man, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS. Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored. Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored.

This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgencies. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened. Loss of Procreative Power Nervous, Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of Nervous, Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consump-

DR. JOHNSTON.

Member of the Royal College of Surgery of London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and else-where, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of pind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or mar-

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of muscular Pow-er, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Func-tions, General Debility, Symtoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.-The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply im-mediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernicious habits. Such persons must, before comtemplat-

MARRIAGE

Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial inspiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery de-ters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him. delaying till the constitutional symptoms of the horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the painte of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease be-comes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "fron whence no traveller returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIK victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Person, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being re-stored to a renewal of Life, Vigor and Happiness in despair leaves him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment. DR. JOHNSTON OFFICE No. 7, SOUTH FREDERICK STREET BALTIMORE, MD.
